MILK ORDINANCE

FINALLY IS ADOPTED

The health-committee of the board of supervisors will make a report on the Leahi appropriation at the next meeting of the board. The report, as agreed upon last night by the committee, will probably recommend that the home be paid $1.50 a day for every patient sent to the institution by Dr. J. T. Wayson, city physician, and not provided for under the board of $250 a month appropriation to the home.

The milk ordinance, which has been before the committee for some time, revised and re-revised, was finally adopted by the board, in substantially the same form as outlined in the Star-Bulletin several days ago. It is aimed to better the conditions of dairies on the island to assure a pure milk supply. The ordinance was drawn up by P. L. Weaver, first deputy city and county attorney, upon the suggestions of J. T. Wayson, city physician, Supervisor Wolter, chairman of the health committee, and E. J. Gay, the milk inspector.

Mrs. Della M. Ringling, wife of Alfred T. Ringling, the circus man, was granted an absolute divorce and the alimony income from $300,000 for the rest of her life.

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS.

To the Advertiser

Dispatches from Mexico City are to the effect that Huerta has told his cabinet he had decided to remain in the national palace in spite of any threatening demonstrations by the United States.

Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy sent to Washington yesterday a long dispatch telling of the result of the conference which he had with Huerta the day before. O'Shaughnessy refused to divulge what had been discussed at the meeting.

A number of political enemies of the dictator have pledged him their support, saying that Mexico expects to see Huerta remain in the national palace and refuse to give way in the face of pressure from Washington or any other foreign menace.

The United States army transport Kilpatrick, which has been at Galveston, Texas, since the concentration of the second division of the army there in February, sailed yesterday for New York, where the 10th cavalry, which has been stationed at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, will be taken aboard and brought to Galveston.

The troops will then entrain for Fort Bliss, Texas. Other movements of troops were announced as follows: Four troops of the 15th cavalry, now at Washington, four troops of the same regiment, at Chicago and four stationed at Fort Leavenworth will move simultaneously for the Mexican border in Arizona.

A rare occurrence took place in the supreme court of the United States when Mrs. S. S. Sorin of Arizona appeared yesterday as the sole representative of a corporation in a big mining suit. Only on a few occasions have women addressed the court, and then in nearly every instance only as associate counsel.

Wholesale assassinations have been planned by political conspirators who are plotting the death of President Diaz, the Nicaraguan cabinet and members of the chamber of deputies, according to a confession made at Managua by one of the ringleaders. It is said the conspirators are divided into three groups and each man had his victims marked out for him.

John Purroy Mitchell's plurality for mayor in the New York city election Tuesday, as shown by official returns, is 121,000. Sir Tammany leaders declared that Murphy will never dictate another nomination or manage another campaign.

State troops were called out by Governor McCree to guard the jail at Somerset, Ky., yesterday to prevent the lynching of Bob Garrett, a negro, charged with attempting to assault a white woman.

In recognition of his bravery, First Officer Spangenberg, who was in temporary command of the North German Lloyd steamer Grosser Kurfurst at the time of the Volturno disaster, has been promoted to captain.

Joseph W. Bailey, former senator from Texas, will be a candidate for governor of Texas at the state election next year, according to an announcement made by several of his friends.

Felix Diaz, late candidate for president of Mexico, and at present a refugee from that country, was attacked by an assassin in Havana, Cuba, last night and wounded twice. His injuries are not considered fatal. He was stabbed once behind the ear and once in the neck. In addition he was struck on the head by a heavy cane.

The governor of Kiev has begun to mass troops in anticipation of violence following the verdict in the "ritual murder" trial.

The government has given strict instructions that peace must be maintained and a massacre prevented.

Three hundred additional troops have been added to the barracks.

Two threatening letters have been received by Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, now in Montreal, Que., from anonymous writers in the city, warning her if she did not cease her appearance at the Princess theater they would "get" her.

The disappearance of jewels amounting to several thousand dollars, belonging to Joseph E. Willard, the American ambassador to Spain, was reported to the police by the manager of the Palace hotel, in Madrid.

President Wilson yesterday decided the currency situation could be allowed to drag no longer. In conference with Senator Simmons he gave orders to that effect. It is believed that a party caucus will be called just as soon as the senate committee on currency shows that it is definitely opposed to the main features of the Glass-Owen measure.
